Patricia Hutchins

SEP 25, 1943 - JUL 31, 2017

Patricia Anne Hutchins, 73, of Cliffside Park, passed away on July 31. She is survived by her daughter Miriam Levy Eatchel (Bruce), her beloved grandchildren, Max and Madeleine Eatchel, her brother Thomas Hutchins (Edna) and many friends.

She was born in Durham, NC to Burnice Williard Hutchins and Alma Scearce Hutchins on Sept 25, 1945. She sold residential real estate in CA, RI and NJ before becoming a groundbreaking woman in the commercial and industrial real estate business. She spent over 30 years at the Alexander Summer Co. selling and leasing millions of square feet of office and industrial space. She was on the board of the Volunteer Center of Bergen County and a Sustaining Member of the Junior League of Bergen County.

Travel was Patricia's passion until she had grandchildren. For the last 14 years her passion has been tea parties and anything else the kids wanted to do. As recently as last month, she beat them and their mother in a rousing game of Perquacky. She requested that her ashes be strewn over the Grand Canal in Venice, Italy, her favorite place on Earth.
