Hey papa! I'm 11 and strong! Going into middle school next year❤️.I've been extremely strong, trying not to cry.But it's good to let it out. Because when you passed, it wasn't goodbye. It was goodnight. Because I will see you soon. I know I will. Im 5'6 !! Guess where I got it? From you!!'ve been doing well in school and actually have my whole education and job sorted out. (What I hope for it to be) I want to go to UNCW and become a veterinarian. If I don't succeed in that I will become a scientist and find a cure for cancer.I have a new Breyer named phoenix, he's a clydesdale. I think about you a lot. I remember when you visited me in my dream. I know people think dreams are an illusion and just a normal thing. Though I treasure my dreams. I consider them memories and never forget them. Like my dream about you, about me falling in love, about every dream! I'm scared for middle school but I know I'll do good!

Dear Kimberly and Michael, I just heard about your Fathers passing. My heartfelt condolences. My sister and I have many wonderful memories of him and of your Grandmother and Grandfather. They were a big part of our lives and we are saddened by the news. Love and hugs to everyone.
