Kenneth Ellsworth Klotzbier

FEB 7, 1967 - APR 18, 2020

Kenneth “Kenny” Ellsworth Klotzbier, age 53, passed away peacefully on April 18th, 2020. Kenny was born in Hackensack in 1967, raised in Wood-Ridge and moved to Lodi, where he lived for the past twenty years. Described by friends as a guy with a tough exterior but a heart of gold and gentle soul, Kenny was a laborer at Suez Water North America in Bergen County and member of Utility Workers Union of America Local 375. Survived by his loving mother Patricia Ann (nee: Pinckney). Beloved brother to Edward and sister in law Stella. Cherished uncle to Christopher and William. Also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins. Predeceased by his father, Ellsworth, who passed into eternal life in 2015. A memorial service in celebration of Kenny's life will follow later this year.

I had the honor of being Kenny and Eddie's babysitter when they were newborns. Perfectly beautiful little bundles of joy. Pat and Ellsey trusted me with their precious babies. Many years have passed and the Klotzbier family has always held a piece of my heart. It's so sad to hear of Kennys passing, his time too brief with us here. Condolences to the family, friends and all those who were blessed to have shared time with Kenny.

Rest in Peace Kenny. My condolences to his family. Kenny was a great guy. I remember him helping us fix up our 1st home. It needed a LOT of work. Kenny was so handy and helpful. He was at our house day after day sometimes till late at night. Never asked for anything. A true friend.
