My heart is broken with Richie's loss. I remember all the Giants games, card games, and great laughs. I also remember our joint struggle with the terrible disease that finally took his body from us. May his soul live on and rest in everlasting peace. God bless you Rich.

This is a very sad day as our good friend Richie our dear friend and colleague who I worked with at Mellon Investor Services and Computershare and gave him his nicknames The Italian Stallion & Gumba has left us for a place in heaven. He was a funny guy and loved his sports for sure. I called him once a week to see what he was up to and said we are going to LBI or on a cruise. I said did you hit LOTTO or what, he laughed. He was always doing something with his wife Sue who he adored. He loved his family and also took care of his mom bringing her to appointments and family gatherings. He was ranger on the golf course and loved this p/t job and yes got in a few games of gold here and there. Like he said I make a few extra bucks Johnnie. Holidays and family gatherings and his dear friends were very special for him. We will all miss u gumba, your friend aka The Polish Prince John Boryczki, RIP

With young Son's growing up together in Hasbrouck Heights it's not hard to meet good people and become friends. Rich is one of those good people. I can't recall exactly how or when we met, But I do know our sons were about 5 or 6 at the time and he probably made some type of joke or sarcastic remark that was hilarious, and the rest was history. I have many good memories of Rich over the years. He was a good Dad-always there for Katie & David. Rich was always there to lend a helping hand with scouts and sports activities. I could always count on Rich to help me out with the scout picnics and other events. I remember him and I sweating over hot coals flipping burgers and dogs at the many Little League summer picnics, complaining, joking & laughing all at the same time. Or the many times critiquing our son's soccer or baseball play over the years-hilarious! And then there were the many crazy, late night card games and the beers and jokes that just kept coming.... Yes, Rich is one of those good people you meet in your life whose memory will stay with you forever. RIP my friend!

I met Richie in 1966 at St. Leo College. Little did we know at that time that would lead to a 54 year friendship. More than a friendship because we became fraternity brothers. I guess we hit it off immediately because we were both only children, of Italian heritage, loved the Giants and Yankees and a couple of wise ass kids from New Jersey. Over the many years that followed our families, along with George "Herk" McQueeney and his family developed a bond and friendship that would last the rest of our lives. Our families vacationed together, shared holidays, and many many memorable trips into NYC. Rich and Susan always took the lead and invited us to their home and totally planned awesome trips into New York to see the many wonderful sights the city had to offer. Rich and I also attended a Yankee game at least once a year either at the Stadium or Camden Yards were we'd meet up two other frat brothers, Sully and Vick. But my most joyous memories were the many camping trips Rich, Herk, I and our kids went on every year. Even when the kids out grew tagging along we kept the tradition going. Now my dear friend and brother is gone and at peace. So I will always hold the memories of the time we shared together deeper in my heart to fill the void left by his passing. I was blessed to have Richie as a friend and his spirit will live with me the rest of my days. Frank A. Grisi

I knew Rich for almost 40 years. We met at Bradford Securities and worked together through all the subsequent iterations of the company. Rich was smart, funny and a grouch. He always had a great book to recommend. Rich introduced me to the joys of Guinness. We agreed on politics and I was looking forward to partying with him in November when we were finally rid of the entity occupying the White House. I will miss him very much and remember and toast him whenever I have a Guinness.
